

Safer Foundation has partnered with STC to offer Tech training for individuals on parole or probation

Automotive tech careers are in high demand. Thanks to a grant from the U.S. Department of Labor, we are offering FREE Automotive technology training to prepare successful participants to enter into a sector that has thousands of positions that need to be filled in the Chicago area.

Program Benefits

- FREE training
- Public transportation assistance
- Industry standard certification
- Get GED, if needed
- NEW LAW: program completion can help you get your record sealed faster

Program Eligibility

- Age 25 and over
- Released from incarceration in the last 6 months
- Currently on parole or probation
- Social security card or State ID

3-month program classes:

Intro to Automotive Technology

Electrical Systems and Power Accessories

Automotive Brakes

Steering and Suspension

Climate Control Systems

5 courses to prepare you for a job in the automotive field * Experienced and Enthusiastic Instructors

Professional Development to prepare you for the workplace * Well equipped labs * Latest training technology * Post-program support * ASE Certification available with completion

Classes start In January

Call 773-469-3549 to register or email Ernest Wilson at ernest.wilson@saferfoundation.org for more information

